

ADR Council Meeting

November 10, 2005

1:30 P.M.

I. Welcome/Introductions

Palmer DePaulis welcomed everyone to the ADR Council Meeting.

II. Updates

- a. The UCCR Symposium will be held on May 9th & 10th 2006. We are trying to find a national speaker, as well as local speakers, for the symposium.
- b. Darcie Dixon-Pignanelli is still working with the Division of Administration Services in obtaining training money for the ADR Committee.
- b. It has been suggested that we meet with the Governor and present our needs for the ADR Committee. We would like to invite Rich McKeown, Jim Holbrook and Michelle Straube to help us with that presentation. Senators Walker and Bell have offered to work with the legislature.

III. Discussion on “High Conflict Conversations” with Bill Sinclair and Renette Anderson

Bill Sinclair introduced Renette Anderson who explained that she had adapted a leadership/employee training program, developed by Jim Holbrook and Michele Straube, called “High Conflict Conversations” for the Department of Environmental Quality. (“DEQ Leadership & Employment Development Training Program Summary”). Renette Anderson presented the ADR-developed training program “Don’t Get Mad – Be Even” to the ADR Council.

She invited the council members to attend her next class on February 13 & 14th, 2006.
